RF13.51R - Headset set

Type designation: RF13.51R

PN (RN): 2023.000.62

Set consists of RF13.51R and documentation. For basic operation no other components are required. The headset is designed for the situations when the RF13 or RF20, RF1301 operator is in need of free hands for other activities. It can be worn for long periods of time and works with a helmet or a protective mask on the operator. The gradient microphone works even in a very noisy environment. For more details see the device page.
